

RHANDIRMWYN SHEEPDOG TRIALS AND QUOIT MATCH.

Under the presidency of Mr. Dudley W. Drummond, of Portiscliffe, the annual sheepdog trials and quaiting match took place at Broncwr Farm, Rhandirmwyn, distant eight miles from Llandoverly. The weather proved ideal, resulting in a record crowd being present. 26 dogs competed in the two classes set down for competition, and that wonderful dog, "Fly," secured premier honours. The quaiting match elicited an entry of 46, and some admirable performances were witnessed. Mr. Ivor-Campbell-Davys, of Neuaddfawr, was the vice-president, whilst patrons of the event included Mrs. Kennedy Erskine, London; Mr. F. Cyril Davies, Froodvale; Mr. C. V. Pryse-Rice, Llwyn-y-Brian; Mr. E. P. Lloyd, Glansevin; Mr. H. V. Watkins, Ty-cerrig; Mr. J. E. Morgan, Henllys; and Mr. J. O. Davies. Mr. W. Jones, of Ystradffin, acted as chairman of the committee; Mr. D. Thomas, Dolfallt, as timekeeper; and Mr. J. Davies, Nantyrone, as flagman. The other officials were:—Stewards: Messrs. W. Thomas, Nantygwynal; Thos. Jones, Plasnewydd; W. Price, Gwernp-wll; T. Jones, Penrhyn; W. Jones, Ystrad; and E. Williams, Pwllpriddog. Treasurers: Messrs. W. Thomas, Nant-gwynne, and M.
